Seniors Learn About Online Public Safety From Henderson Police

HENDERSON, NEV. – The Henderson Police Department (HPD) has partnered with Nevada HAND for an evening of information and fun.

HPD officers will be showing a presentation of their new Alert ID Online Program on Monday June 25th from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at Annabelle Pines Senior Apartments located at 310 Annabelle Lane, Henderson, NV 89014.

Alert ID is an online public safety program that started in January 2011. According to the program's web site, Alert ID is able to provide threat alerts and advisories to users about crime, sex offenders, missing children, natural disasters and severe weather.

“We are thrilled to partner with the Henderson Police Department for this event,” said Sue Markham, Resident Services Manager for Nevada HAND. “We welcome the opportunity for our residents to learn how to improve their safety and the safety of others,” said Markham.

HPD officers will be able to answer questions on a variety of other police related topics. Following the presentation, our on-site Resident Services staff has organized a Game Night with Bingo, Poker and Wii Bowling for officers and residents to interact.
