Nevada HAND Hosts Health Fairs for Residents

LAS VEGAS, NEV – Mar. 8, 2012 – Nevada H.A.N.D., Inc. is proud to host its inaugural health fairs at 4 senior properties throughout March & April. The fairs are exclusively for residents and will feature representatives from the American Lung Association, the Arthritis Foundation, UNLV School of Physical Therapy, and UNR Cooperative Extension Food for Health & Soul Program. There will also be a booth organized by Nevada HAND's Wellness Coordinator, Kelly Bumgarner, educating residents on current wellness programs offered in their apartment community. The fairs are being held in the social halls or community rooms. Attendees will have the opportunity to enter prize raffles and receive information on free educational programs in the community.

Nevada HAND will host the health fairs at a number of its apartment communities on the following dates:
