Las Vegas Superheroes Visit Assisted Living Senior Community

LAS VEGAS, NEV. – The Las Vegas Superheroes are coming to the rescue of the senior residents at Silver Sky at Deer Springs Assisted Living (Deer Springs), on Wednesday, June 27 at 11:00 a.m., located at 6741 N. Decatur Boulevard, Las Vegas, NV 89131.

Spiderman, Batman, Superman, Captain America, and Thor will be escorting a number of residents to the main dining room and joining them for lunch. A large number of seniors at Deer Springs are disabled and require special care to move within the building or outdoor events.

“We know some of our residents are not able to join us for outings and trips, so we are doing anything and everything we can to bring the entertainment to them,” said Robert Colbert, Executive Director at Silver Sky at Deer Springs.

The Las Vegas Superheroes have been around for almost 10 years. According to their Founder, Ravyn Combs, the group is composed of local entertainers who visit hospitals, birthday parties, and special events free of charge.

“We are group whose sole purpose is to bring smiles and enjoyment to everyone we come across,” said Combs. “We have a tremendous respect for seniors and are thrilled to visit the residents at Deer Springs,” he said.

Deer Springs’ Executive Chef, Patrick Colombeau, has developed a special menu for this lunch event including Captain America Cupcakes and Superman Punch. All residents at Deer Springs enjoy three fresh and nutritious meals daily.
